The Realistic Kitchen Remodel (Budget and Timeline)

Are you thinking about embarking on a remodeling project? Have you been watching HGTV remodel rooms, or an entire house, in a matter of hours for an unbelievably low price? The magic of television can be deceiving. Unrealistic expectations can lead to disappointment and frustration. Please join us to learn how the remodeling process works in the real world. During our seminar we will breakdown the process and set realistic expectations for budgeting and timelines. We hope you can join us! June 6th at 10:00am-online!

- You will be provided with all the information you will need for your next remodeling project.
- Our employees will be available for questions after the presentation is complete.
- All from the comfort of your own home!

RSVP today by calling (703) 550-1371 or online at FosterRemodeling.com under the Seminars tab to receive your link for the Seminar.
